LOCAL MATTERS.

Removal.
J. UTT has removed his Harness and Saddlery stores to the room immediately under the SENTINEL office. Mr. UTT has recently made large additions to his stock. Call and see him.

Severe Wind Storm.
A severe storm of wind and rain visited a portion of this county on Tuesday. The wind blew a hurricane for the space of about two hours. Great damage, we are told, was done to the corn, and also to fruit.

Lost!
On the 15th inst., a purse, made of squirrel skin, containing $195. I will give $25 reward for the recovery of it. The finder may leave it at the SENTINEL office, where the reward will be paid.
R. D. FLEMING.

Personal.
We are glad to notice that our friend IRA PETER, Esq., who, for a week or two past, has been afflicted with a severe bilious attack, has recovered so much as to be able to appear at his old stand. IRA's popularity needs no comment from us.

For Parts Unknown.
It turns out that J. C. Woods, agent of State Insurance Company, who was in this place a few weeks since, receiving applications for insurance, and the money thereon, has very suddenly left for parts unknown, taking with him the cash. The company issued policies for all applications made through him.

The Streets.
It is a source of encouragement to notice that some effort is being made to place the streets in good condition. They have been neglected the past summer, owing to the continued rains, and are now sadly in need of repair. Let the work continue until nothing remains to be done. The side walks, also, need the attention of the city authorities. We hear the complaint that brick cannot be obtained for this purpose. We would suggest that stone, which can be easily had, be used instead. Besides being more durable it makes a beautiful pavement.

The Rioters.
The parties arrested last week for resisting the civil officers and creating disturbance were examined on Monday before Judge EVANS. The delay was caused by a singular train of circumstances: Mayor HART, who issued the warrant, was too unwell to conduct the trial; the next nearest Justice being GINSON, they were, on Wednesday, brought before him, and the trial of GINS commenced; but on Thursday morning, for reasons unknown to us, the Esquire suddenly tendered his resignation, which was at once accepted by the County Court. Court being then in session, of which Judge EVANS is President, the cases were deferred until Monday. Owing to the irregularity of the proceedings, JOHN K. KEY and JOHN H. JACKSON were discharged on motion. GUIRE, WORLEY, and ARMSTRONG were upon trial acquitted.

LARGE foreign papers show that a rush of emigrants to this country from the North of Europe, is setting in with more than usual vehemence; 15,000 Polish exiles are making arrangements with the Swiss Government for transportation to the free soil of the States. From Norway the exodus of the most valuable part of the population is so great as to excite the fears of the authorities, who are endeavoring to check it.

LARGE numbers of the stock carried into Illinois last winter and early this spring, from the interior counties of this State, in anticipation of troubles, are being brought back again. Droves of these horses, mules and jacks, have passed through Paris in the past few days, going westward.

LUSUS NATURAE.—Mrs. H., living near Mount Pleasant, Cooper county, Mo., was delivered on the 17th of July last, by Dr. J. P. H. Gray, of that city, of a child with one head, four arms, four hands, four legs, and four feet. The mother is doing well.

AMONG those who are named in connection with the next Governorship of Pennsylvania, are Hons. J. M. Moorehead, Norton, McMichael, W. W. Ketchum, John Covode, Francis Fordan, General Herron, and Colonel A. J. McClure.

Marriages.

We are under many obligations for the cake, which was—not received.

Deaths.

ON the 15th inst., near Forest City, Mo., of Diarrhoea, HENRY, son of ABRAHAM and ELIZABETH BLENDON, aged one year and eleven days.

ON the 6th ult., in Waukesha, Wis., of Diphtheria, ROSA, daughter of J. L. and S. E. ALLEN, aged four years and six months.

She died before her infant soul
Had ever burned with wrong desires,
Had ever spurned at Heaven's control,
Or ever quenched its sacred fires.
She died to show the way to care,
But for a moment felt the rod,
Then rising on the victress air,
Spread her light wings and soared to God.
